Serving Those Who Protect And Serve

“Blessed are the peace makers; for they shall be called the children of God.”
Matthew 5:9

January 2026

Dear Friends and Fellow Laborers in Christ,

We greet you with grateful and humble hearts as we reflect on what God has done this past year.

This ministry began with a calling—an unmistakable burden placed on our hearts for the men and women of law enforcement and for their families who serve alongside them. What started as an idea born in prayer required faith-filled obedience, and like many God-ordained works, the beginning was marked by start-up struggles, seasons of waiting, and moments where trusting God to open doors was pertinent. Through every challenge, the Lord has been faithful, teaching us perseverance and dependence on Him.

Now, five years later, we stand in awe of how God has opened doors we could never have opened ourselves. He has granted us opportunities to preach, to pray, and to present the vision of a law enforcement ministry grounded in Scripture and led by compassion. God has given us favor to minister directly to officers and their families, bringing the hope of the Gospel into spaces where it is deeply needed.

A vital part of this journey has been the churches God has divinely connected to this ministry. We are profoundly grateful for our partner churches who have stood with us in prayer, encouragement, and tangible support. These churches are not simply supporters—they are co-laborers in the work of the Gospel. They have opened their doors, welcomed the mission, and embraced the call to care for those who protect and serve our communities.

Our church partners have hosted services, provided resources, prayed faithfully for officers and their families, and stood ready to minister in times of crisis and celebration alike. Together, we have been able to extend the reach of Sword and Shield Ministry far beyond what we could do alone. Their faithfulness reminds us that when the Body of Christ works together, the impact is eternal.
